

Organizational Remembering as an Alternative Framework

Wednesday 15th July 2015

School of Business and Management, Queen Mary University of Management

Keynote: Professor Andrew Hoskins, University of Glasgow

“Organizational Memory and the Archive”

Guest Speakers:

William Foster (University of Alberta)
The Role of Archivists in Creating Organizational Memory Assets

Stephanie van de Kerkhof (University of Mannheim)
Memory and Narratives of World War I and II in European Enterprise During the Cold War

Anna Linda Musacchio Adorisio (Copenhagen Business School)
Storying the Past in Banking

Debra Ramsay (University of Glasgow)
Organizational Memory and the War Diary

Michael Rowlinson (Queen Mary University of London)
Organizational Remembering as an Alternative to Organizational Memory Studies

Roundtable
Memory Studies and Organization Studies

Seminar Abstract:
In this session we bring together scholars from history, communication studies, and organization studies with an interest in the emerging field of organizational remembering.

Please register at: <http://bit.ly/1JA7LVE>

There are a limited number of funded places available which will be allocated on a first come, first served basis. After which a registration fee of £40 will be charged which includes refreshments, lunch and an evening drinks reception. This fee may be waived for a limited number of doctoral students, for more information, please contact sbm-events@qmul.ac.uk.

Further information

Naomi Britton
School of Business and Management
Queen Mary University of London
Mile End Campus, London, E1 4NS

Tel: +44 (0)207 882 6587
email: sbm-events@qmul.ac.uk

Centre for Management and Organisational History

CMOH